

Nov. 2 & 3, 2016

9 a.m.—5 p.m.

CONFERENCE LOCATION:

Six Nations Polytechnic
2160 Fourth Line, Ohsweken, ON N0A 1M0

CONFERENCE HOTEL:

The Bears Inn	Best Western
Ohsweken, ON	Brantford, ON
519 445 4133	519 753 8651

CONFERENCE COORDINATION:

www.tapresources.ca
519 445 1794
Tapresources@bellnet.ca

Six Nations Polytechnic is pleased to announce it's 4th annual Champions for Change conference Celebrating Resilience - Moving Forward. This 1.5 day conference will provide a preview of the discussions to be continued at the World Indigenous Peoples Conference on Education July 2017. Consistent with the principles of the Two Row Wampum, the conference sessions will present Indigenous and non-Indigenous contributions to Recovery, Revitalization and Restoration of respectful relationships and our collective well-being.

This year's feature theatrical presentation is the fourth collaboration between Rick Hill and Herbie Barnes, Little Red Barnes Production.

RICK HILL

Sr. Project Coordinator - Deyohahá:ge Indigenous Knowledge Centre, SNP

Rick, a Tuscarora of the Beaver Clan, has a distinguished career in education and museum management. In 2016, Rick received an honorary doctorate from McMaster University for his contributions to the resurgence of Indigenous knowledge as a cultural historian, teaching elder and researcher.

HERBIE BARNES

Producer, Director, Playwright

Herbie Barnes, An Anishnabe from Aundeck Omni Kaning on Manitoulin Island best known for his role of Joseph in the film Dance Me Outside, and on the CBC series The Rez. Herbie has been collaborating with Rick Hill on historical performances for the last four years.

Watch for upcoming announcements for this year's keynote & panel presentations

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN WWW.SNPOLYTECHNIC.COM